

PROVIDER PROFILE

Cohen Propagation Nurseries located in Kfar Hanagid, Isreal is a leading supplier of unrooted cuttings for bedding and basket plants. Jacob and Rivka Cohen are the founders of the company and today it continues to be a family business.

They have two locations: Kfar Hanagid consisting of their head office, a rooting area, laboratory, trial area and four separate greenhouses which cover an area of 36000sqm. Nir Chen is their second area consisting of a secondary office and 49000sqm.

Their cuttings are marketed and exported into the United States by Agrexco-Carme, whose worldwide logistical support ensures that their product arrives safely and on time-every time.

FEATURES & BENEFITS

Cohen Propagation Nurseries has two departments to their laboratory: one for testing virus and one for a bank of 110 different varieties which are approved by the Israel Plant Protection.

Cohen Propagation Nurseries new varieties are bred by excellent breeders, partly exclusive to Cohen, and were taken into their assortment only after precise testing in order to make sure you will receive the best genetics available. Their laboratories continue to grow so they may check for any type virus.

KEY ITEMS

Cohen Propagation Nurseries a leading supplier of unrooting annuals can offer their customer many varieties from the common to the unusual.

- Fuchsia-over 50 varieties
- Lobelia-Hot Series
- Nemesia-Honey Series
- Petunia-Happy Series

For more information or to order from this provider > www.mchutchison.com

